

KICK off the cycling season with the Redhook Ale Brewery's 15th annual Haul Ash Redhook Tour De Brew. This year, Haul Ash commemorates the 30th Anniversary of the 1980 eruption of Mt. St. Helens! Over the years, Haul Ash has become a great tradition for local cyclist and Redhook enthusiasts alike.

RIDE roundtrip from the Redhook Ale Brewery in Woodinville to Seattle's Fremont neighborhood - the birthplace of Redhook - along the scenic Burke-Gilman Trail. Once in Fremont, cross over the Fremont Bridge and quench your thirst with a cold pint at the midway point on Nickerson St. or hold onto your drink tickets for the Haul Ash After-Party in the grassy Bowl at the brewery, complete with a BBQ and Redhook beer garden.

MUSIC and yes, plenty of Redhook brew will follow the ride. Back at the brewery riders will be treated to a live show from Seattle's favorite Beatle's tribute band and Redhook's good friend, Crème Tangerine!

Admission to the after-party is included in the rider registration fee. The after party is also open to the public with a suggested entry donation of $5. Proceeds benefit Seattle's Bike Works non-profit organization. So invite your friends and family to meet you back at the brewery and celebrate your triumphant Redhook pilgrimage with you!

Gates open at 11:30AM, music from 12:30-3PM. All ages are welcome. Must have I.D. ready at gate for a beer bracelet. BBQ food, beer & wine will be available. Cash only outside. ATM in the Pub. Blankets & Picnics OK. Re-Entry OK. No outside alcohol.

DISTANCE 41 miles roundtrip, flat course
EST RIDE TIME 2.5-4.0 hours

PARKING Available at Redhook, neighboring ball fields, and the business parks on Hwy 202 north of Redhook.

THE ROUTE

After departing Redhook riders will turn left, cross the bridge and head north on the Sammamish River Trail. Riders will meander along the Sammamish River Trail until it becomes the Burke-Gilman Trail. Views of Lake Washington, the University of Washington and Lake Union inspire riders to the midway point. At the intersection of 34th Street and Stone Way, riders will merge on to 34th and proceed west, until turning left to cross the Fremont Bridge. The midway point is on the right at the intersection of Nickerson St. and Fremont Ave. Bike racks are provided by Bike Works. Please supply your own bike locks. Don't forget your helmet!!
